EDITORIAL

In again, out again, Finnegan. It is difficult for us to admit it, but we are again in a hospital. It is not the previous ailment, though that did contribute to our present condition. A seemingly harmless fall resulted in fractured arms just below the elbows. Nothing serious, but we are hospitalized. Fortunately, we are able to use our hands and therefore are again able to contribute somewhat to our dear Specialist. Mr. Kobyłka has again volunteered to pinch-hit for us and we surely appreciate it.

A letter from member Trnovsky, who asks if any members collect Czechoslovak Tuberculosis seals and wonders if a price list of these is extant. He states he has a supply of these labels issued from the years 1937 to 1951, the last year of their appearance. The TB seals were issued by an organization originally sponsored by Masaryk, which fact explains their disappearance when the present regime came to power.

In the January issue of the Specialist we mentioned that difficulties are experienced by your editor when he needs photos of more valuable material. Soon after our arrival in the hospital we received a letter from one of the pioneers of our Society, Mr. Lolly M. Horechny, a commercial photographer, who not only volunteered to help us out in our present dilemma but also promised to photograph any of our needs in the future. We have often mentioned that your editor gets more cooperation from the membership than any other editor of a periodical of our size and this certainly substantiates our statement. To Mr. Horechny and our many helpers, our sincere thanks.

In a recent issue of "FILATELIE" published in Praha we read this complaint. The Czechoslovak stamp was born 36 years ago and thus increased the number of stamp issuing countries, some of which had already had a 73 year old tradition. At that time there were not too many philatelists in this country but with the appearance of the Hradčany issues the ranks of stamp collectors began to increase. Because of the paucity of issues, dealers began to advertise errors, both constant and occasional, waste and trash which were called "rarities" and then "milked" (!) many unsuspecting collectors. Early in the year 1935, philatelic writers E. Hirsch and J. Franěk published a handbook which brought to the collectors knowledge of stamps issued to 1934. Twenty years have passed since then and collectors await in vain a guide to the stamps of our country. Following the liberation of 1945 a summary by Hirsch entitled "Thirty Years of the Czechoslovak Stamps, 1918-1948" as also some fine philatelic publications helped the collectors. The last comprehensive work, a specialized catalog by L. Novotný, was published in 1949.

From this poor publishing activity, especially after 1945, it would seem that our stamps printed by the most modern presses, have no philatelic interest and therefore the price list published by POFIS is sufficient to assemble a collection of Czechoslovakia. Alert philatelists have found a large number of varieties and read of others in various philatelic magazines. It is evident that collectors need more information and that to further the cause of Czechoslovak philately a new monograph is a big need in our country. If published during the International Exhibition PRAGA 1955, it would serve the cause splendidly.

In the same issue of "FILATELIE" appeared an article about the above mentioned "PRAGA 1955". The author, Mr. Karel Basika, who is well known throughout the philatelic world, sketches the history of FIP (International Philatelic Organization) since its inception in 1926. Czech collectors sent their delegates to the first convention in Paris. The first International Stamp Show in Czechoslovakia took place in 1923, before FIP; the next International came to Praha in 1938. At a meeting of FIP in Praha in 1947 it was decided to hold an international stamp show there in 1950 but due to the unfortunate political upheavals this failed to materialize. In years past only one International Stamp Exhibition was authorized annually but it is evident that due to the popularity of the hobby throughout the world, the arrangement is impractical. So 1955 will have three internationals: Norway, Sweden and Czechoslovakia will be hosts to large philatelic gatherings. To fellow collectors in Czechoslovakia we wish success in their undertaking and promise to do all in our power to help them in their work.

We have not seen the drafts of the February Specialist but we do know that we are well in 1955 and members should realize that the success of our Society depends on the dues collected. If you have failed to pay your dues for this year, please do so now. Our program is as ambitious as ever; illustrations for many articles are essential and costly; your editor needs your full cooperation. Besides, the membership list is regularly published in the April issue. If your dues are not paid by March 12, don't blame your treasurer if your name is omitted.

A NEW FIND

In the January issue of the Specialist your editor mentioned that Alfons Stach sent him a block of eight stamps, not se-tenant, of the 1K Hungarian Parliament stamp overprinted Pošta Československá 1919. On several occasions, when this interesting series was treated in the Specialist, the reader was acquainted with the manner of assembling Austrian and Hungarian leftovers, preparing them in sheets for overprinting purposes and then applying the overprint. It was believed that all the inverts of these stamps were known and reported, but this block found its way into a collection of one who kept knowledge of its existence to himself. A photograph of this, possibly unique, item has been made by our member, Mr. Horechny, and we are happy to reproduce it in the Specialist. We thank Mr. Stach for the opportunity of showing it to our readers and Mr. Horechny for the fine job of photography. This group of stamps, maligned by many but collected by even more, is enriched by a new variety. We hesitate to place a value on this item but recall that in 1931, in Germany, another unique item, the 4K granite paper was sold for $2,500.

PROVISIONAL POSTMARKS

Any postmark which is a substitute for the regular, official one is termed "Provisional". Usually it is of private or semi-official manufacture. However, some postmarks which we find occasionally must not be classed as provisionals. They are mostly official postmarks found on postage dues and we class them as exceptions (rarities). (Figs. 6 to 13). The Vienna postoffice used postmark no. 9 for cancelling stamps which got by the dispatching office, also newspaper stamps. No. 8 is an official seal of GASTORF postoffice, having the eagle and German name defaced. A similar postmark was used in Slovakia's Dunajská Stred where the Magyar name DUNAS-ZER-DAHELY was cut out. A new postmark was needed for Znojmo 2 and Hrušovany, where the Czech name was removed from the bilingual cancel during the political upheaval, so another postmark in new form was secured by the Znojmo postoffice (Fig. 3, 4, 5). The greatest number of varieties is found in the Olomouc postal district. There are Olomouc 1, Olomouc 2, Olomouc 3, Hodolany, Chvalkovice dist. Olomouc, Náměšť dist. Olomouc, Plazy dist. Olomouc, Holice u Olomouce and others.

- Pr-1 Double circle, in one language, name above, distinguishing letter below, asterisks on both sides, in the center the date, Type D4.
- Pr-2 Double circle, inner circle bridged, in one language, name above, distinguishing letter below, date inside the bridge.
- Pr-3 Same as Pr-2, asterisks left and right of bridge.
- Pr-4 Same as Pr-2, time is shown with date, ornaments.
- Pr-5 Double circle, bridged, bilingual, Czech name on top, German at the bottom, vertical hatching in the segments above and below the bridge.

TRAIN POSTMARKS

These postmarks are about the most interesting we find. They are found on postal cards and letters, but not on postal tags, which makes them rather scarce. In 1925 I catalogued these postmarks in a small pamphlet issued by the Union of Philatelic Clubs of Praha, but since then many gaps were discovered and those I now try to fill in. However, I believe that in this group are many more to be discovered. The division of Austria-Hungary into several independent states caused the rail mail service to disintegrate, because the mail cars were left where they were in the break-up. For this reason we sometimes find the stamps of New Austria (Deutschösterreich) postmarked PRAG-WIEN, Polish stamps postmarked BIELITZ-KOJETEIN and Magyar BUDAPEST-ODERBERG. The same goes for the Czechoslovak stamps. The German Reich postmarks were taken care of in our introduction.

The Railway Mail car is in fact a small postoffice accepting mail, distributing and postmarking it by a special cancelling stamp, showing the direction of the run, date and the number of the car. It is even possible to deposit in the mailcar chute a registered letter, provided it has sufficient postage and is marked for registration. This letter receives a registration sticker which is postmarked with the car's cancel. The Austrian stickers are printed on yellow paper with black letters. Czechoslovak stickers are on white paper with red and blue letters and the German Reich stickers are on white paper with red and yellow letters.

The Postmark shows the name of the first and the last station of the run, (Komotau-Bodenbach). Sometimes, if important enough, an intermediate station is included (Komotau-Ausig-Bodenbach).

Although Czechoslovakian postmarks were being introduced at the beginning of 1919, the Austrian train postmarks were used well into 1920, while on some runs provisional postmarks were in use. Nationalization of bilingual postmarks was done by removing the German name and in one case the German endings of names were removed, (ČASlau-ZAWRAteez-TREMOSchnitz). The postmarks of direct runs did not have a number, because the mail was handled at the station by a railroad attendant.

TRAIN POSTMARKS

(Line arrangement)

These postmarks are about the oldest known and bring back the memories of 1850, when the railway mail service was introduced. The framed postmark Tachau-Plan 2853 used immediately before Oct. 28, 1918, has so far not been found on any Czechoslovak stamps.

- Vr-1 Two line, in one language. Shows the direction and the number.
- Vr-2 Two line, one language, FAHRENDES POST AMT in first line, direction and number on the second.
- Vr-3 This postmark was found on Czechoslovak stamps, but is obviously of German Reich origin.

Single Circle

- Vj-1 In one language, F. P. A. (Fahrendes Post Amt) on top, direction and the number on the bottom, date in the center in form of a fraction.
- Vj-2 In one language, direction on top, at the bottom the number in a frame, date in the center.
- Vj-3 Same as Vj-2, but with asterisks above the number frame.
- Vj-4 Bilingual, Czech on the left, German on the right, number at the bottom in small frame, date in the center.
- Vj-5 In one language, direction on top, date in the center, number above the date.
- Vj-6 Same as Vj-5, but the date in two lines. Occasionally the number is either left out or blacked out.
- Vj-7 Bilingual, otherwise same as Vj-6. The Častolovice-Solnice postmark has undergone several changes.
- Vj-8 In one language, direction on top, on the bottom an ornamental post-horn. Date and number in one line in the center.
- Vj-9 Same as Vj-8, but the number is between two asterisks. (Neutitschein-Zauchtel * 26 *).
- Vj-10 Same as Vj-8, but the number is to the right of the date.

Double Circle

- Vd-1 In one language, F. P. A. on top, direction and the number on the bottom, date in the center in a form of a fraction.
- Vd-2 In one language, direction on top, number on the bottom, date in the center in form of a fraction between ornamental curves.
- Vd-3 In one language, direction on top, number on the bottom, date in a bridge of the inner circle, ornaments above and below.
- Vd-4 Same as Vd-3, but with asterisks fore and aft of the number.
- Vd-5 Same as Vd-3, but instead of left asterisk a distinguishing letter "a".

Of another type could be a postmark, which has in place of the distinguishing letter a Roman II on the left side. This postmark, however, has not been found on Czechoslovak stamps.

PROVISIONAL POSTMARKS

The great variety of these postmarks is the proof that they were not conceived by a central authority, but rather by the needs of the individual districts. From Olomouc we have Vp-1 and Vp-2; Slovakia, Vp-3, Vp-4 and Vp-5; Praha, Vp-6 to Vp-9; and Brno, Vp-10. All of these cancelling stamps are made of rubber without the date. The exception is Vp-10 which is made of metal. A complete list of types of the various runs can only be obtained by a diligent philatelic search.

Vp-1 In one line with abbreviations, no number (KOJetín-HULín).

Vp-2 Same as Vp-1, but number after the name (OPav-OLomouc 864).

- Vp-3 In one line with number.
 Vp-4 Same as Vp-3, but a letter "H" in place of the number.
 Vp-5 In two lines, VLAKOVA POŠTA on top line, name and the number on the second.
