PRISONERS ON THE ISLE OF MAN

by

RNDr. Miroslav Vostatek

Since 1977, several articles have appeared in Filatelie calling attention to the fact that during World War I some of the prisoners on the Isle of Man included Czechoslovaks. Dr. V. Bayer of Pardubice documents this with correspondence from his uncle; B. Halir, Paul Hauzner and Dr. V. Pakloska wrote about it in Filatelie No. 13 (1982). I myself mentioned this fact when by chance a copy of Stanley Gibbons catalog "Collect Isle of Man" came into my possession in 1977.

What was it like in those days?

In 1908, there was an Army camp on this island near the city of Peel. It had its own Post Office cancellation. During World War I, the British military establishment set up a series of prisoner camps for enemy soldiers captured on the Western Front. In addition there were some internment centers there; the Aliens Detention Camp and the Douglas Holiday Camp, to mention two. Since some segments of the Austrian Army in which Czech officers and soldiers were serving saw action in Belgium and France on the Western Front, some were captured by the British. Others were assigned with the German Armies. These were mainly special artillery units. Ultimately a few Czechoslovaks who had been living in England entered these prisoner camps, since at that time, they were officially Austrian citizens.

F. Grussel of Podebrad confirmed some of this through his grandfather's correspondence. The grandfather had been looking for work in England during 1914. As an Austrian citizen, he was brought into the internment center where he remained from 1914 to 1918. He corresponded with his family in Varnsdorf in northern Bohemia. A postcard mailed from Varnsdorf on August 27, 1918 was addressed to "Herr Franz Grussel, 14971, Camp 3, Compound D3, Hut 2A, Aliens Camp, Knockaloe, Isle of Man, England." (Fig. 1) It bears a triangular marking "Gemeinsames Zentr. Nachw. Buro/Zensurabteilung Wien." This can be loosely translated as "Joint Central Intelligence Office/Censorship Section - Vienna." It also shows a British censor mark with the abbreviation "P.O.". Authorities have quoted this abbreviation as "P.C.". However, I read it as "P.O." for various reasons. *

Subsequent correspondence contains drawings of the camp by some of the prisoners. Two of these are shown here. The one showing a general overview bears the label "Kriegsgefangenenlager Knockaloe, Insel Man". An insert beneath the picture reads "Entwurf, Stich und Druck im Lager ausgeführt, C. Schneider". (Fig. 2) This means "Prisoner of War Camp Knockaloe, Isle of Man...Designed, Engraved and Printed in the Camp, C. Schneider".

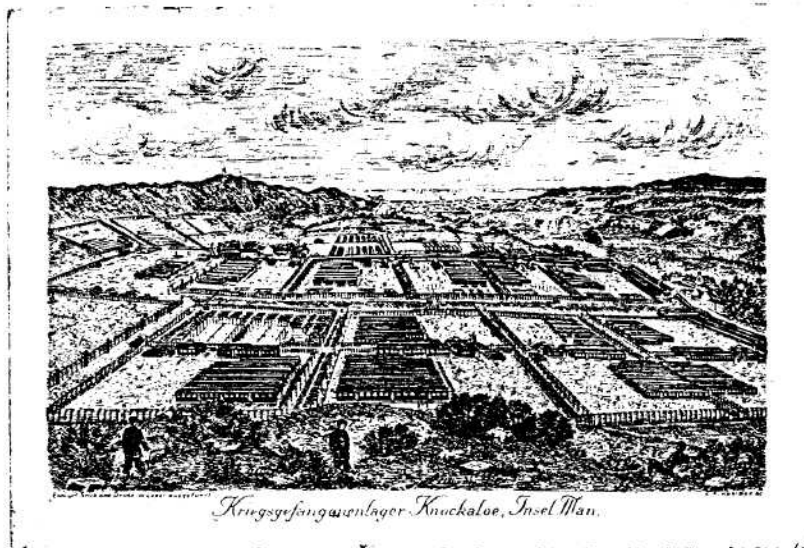

Fig. 2 - Postcard: "Knockaloe POW Camp, Isle of Man"

This camp had its own independent postal suboffice with its own cancellations. These have not been found on any mail, and catalogs list them as having premium value.

As a World War I Camp, Knockaloe had a capacity of 32,000 prisoners and internees. It was located near the western shore of the Island on the outskirts of Peel. There were other camps on the Island as well. In the postcard picture showing a closer view of a part of the camp, Peel can be seen in the distance. (Fig. 3)

This is but one of many intriguing tidbits that continue to whet the philatelic appetites of collectors more than 60 years after their happening.

INTERESTING USE OF POSTAGE STAMPS

BY

RNDr. Miroslav Vostatek

Collectors of Czechoslovak stamps may wish to acquaint themselves with some interesting overprints reading "1 Kc (or 2 Kc) Pausalovana Potravni Dan" (Food Service Tax). It concerned the imposition of a food tax at the borders of the cities of Praha, Brno and Bratislava. The tax was collected on packages of food mailed to recipients in those cities.

By authority of the Finance Ministry, revenue stamps were issued and sold by the Post Office. They were affixed to these packages and duly cancelled. Since the Post Office had an overabundant supply of postage due stamps, they used them with the food tax overprint. Therefore, it is not so much the stamps, but the overprint, that is sought.

Obviously these are curiosity items that everyone should have in his collection. Unfortunately, I have not found them on piece, - only occasionally by themselves.

Ed. Note: The Food Tax Service revenue stamps discussed above are illustrated below. The cancellation on the 1 Kc/250 h value reads SMICHOV - 3 - XI 26 (SMICHOV is a district in Prague).

Fig. 1 Overprinted Postage Due Issue

The overprinted Postage Dues were later replaced by a definitive issue of Food Service Revenue Stamps illustrated below. The cancellation on the 1 Kc value reads "PRAHA 5, 12 - III.34". Their use continued into the Protectorate period as illustrated by the 1 K value, also cancelled in Prague.

Fig. 2. Definitive CSR Issue

Fig. 3. Protectorate Issue

These revenue stamps, together with general revenue, banknote control tax stamps of 1919 and other special revenue issues may or may not be of interest to postage stamp collectors. Nevertheless, their study presents an interesting if somewhat neglected subject.

FROM THE EDITOR'S STOCK BOOK

With the Holiday Season fast approaching, let those of us bringing you the SPECIALIST wish you the best of health, joy and peace and enough time to enjoy our hobby.

In last month's SPECIALIST we honored the successful exhibitors at our 1982 Convention and Show in Philadelphia. While these shows - SEPAD in 1982 and BALPEX in 1983 - represent our members' major opportunities to show, it is also important to our hobby to have members exhibit at other shows - where others might learn. One such exhibitor is Dom Riccio, who just prior to SEPAD, where he received a SEPAD Vermeil and the Society's Third Place Award, received FIRST PLACE for the most interesting cover and "Best of Show" at the Ukrainian Philatelic and Numismatic Society's Show in Glen Spring, New York on September 25 - 26. What did Dom exhibit? Carpatho - Ukraine - what else? Dom also gave one of his fine talks on the same subject and entered the SPECIALIST in the show (Non-competitively), for which we received a UPNSPEX '82 Certificate of Participation. Congratulations and thanks to Dominick Riccio.

We have recently learned that Honorary SCP member Zdenek Kvasnicka and his wonderful wife Rica, have this year celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. We wish this fine couple many more years of health and happiness together.

One sad note, we mark the passing this year of two members of the Society. One is Guy A. Greenwalt, who was a founding member of the SCP and, except for Mrs. Hedy Lowey, widow of our Society's founder, had the lowest membership number - Number 4. The other member who passed on this year is the noted collector and philatelic writer - David Lindman, SCP former member - Number 673. David Lindman was Stamp Editor of the New York Times and recipient of numerous honors and awards from philatelic organizations the world over. We wish to express our sincere condolences to their families and friends.

We really must apologize for the appearance of the November SPECIALIST - it was a cost-cutting experiment. We hope it did not cause too much eye strain, and also hope that this issue will turn out better. As a matter of fact, the November issue might not have appeared at all. Your editor left the country on 17 October for what was supposed to be a three-week TDY trip, which actually lasted five weeks. As a result the November SPECIALIST was put together entirely by the other board members, most especially by Henry Hahn. Your editor is very grateful for this fine support.

Dues for 1983 have begun to come in. If you have not paid yours yet, please do not hesitate any longer. Unfortunately we cannot continue to send the SPECIALIST to members who have not paid their dues in 1983.

LETTER FROM A FAR FLUNG MEMBER

22 November, 1982

Dear Henry,

With this I submit some findings, following the article entitled: NEW HUNTING GROUNDS IN MODERN CZECHOSLOVAK PHILATELY by E.Skovbo Jensen in the January 1979 SPECIALIST which I found of considerable interest. In the latest Stanley Gibbons catalogue is the following statement concerning fluorescent/phosphorescent papers:

"From No. 2385 (30th Anniversary of Victorious February, 25/2/1978) onwards many issues are on phosphorescent paper; this reacts yellow under an ultra-violet lamp. The non-phosphorescent paper used for other issues reacts white under a U.V. lamp due to brighteners used in the manufacture of the paper."

On going through duplicates, I found several isolated items with various yellow bars and dots, well prior to the above date, indicating experimentation with fluorescent markings. My findings are as follows:

- 2Kcs Expo 70 of 13/3/70 with 4 vertical bars
- 20h World Football of 29/10/70 with 3 vertical bars
ditto with 4 dots
- 20h World Hunting of 27/8/71 with 1 vertical bar
- 2Kcs World Hunting of 27/8/71 with 4 vertical bars
- 40h Munich Olympics of 16/12/71 with 5 vertical bars
- 50h Skiing of 13/1/72 with 2 vertical bars
- 40h Jan Preisler of 14/6/72 with 2 vertical bars
- 80h Dragon and gilded ornament of 29/8/72 with 5 vertical bars
- 60h Krampachy Revolt of 28/11/72 with 5 vertical bars
- 60h Quest for Happiness of 25/1/73 with 1 dot
- 30h Tennis player of 22/2/73 with 3 dots

20h Cosmonauts Day of 12/4/73 with 2 vertical bars

1Kcs World T. U. C. of 15/10/73 with 2 dots in top selvage

Some of the brighteners used give such a bright glow that they can also be considered as fluorescent paper; at least, I suppose, they serve the same purpose.

I wonder if any member has found other, perhaps even earlier evidence of experimentation with phosphorescent papers, or can confirm a date at which these were commenced.

You may also be interested to learn that Alec McMillan was awarded a silver bronze with a collection of "Field Post of Czechoslovakia" and Gerald van Zanten also a silver bronze with a collection of "Czechoslovakian Philatelic Exhibitions" at the Palmpex 82 Exhibition in Palmerston North in May of this year, where I also served as judge.

I just noted in a Gibbons catalogue the WIPA and ESSEN sheets listed as issued on 10/11/80 respectively, I was not aware of these issues before that, are they official issues, or semi-official?

Best Wishes,

Gerald van Zanten

Dear Gerald,

Your research will be of interest to a great many members and your letter is being published in toto. Alec McMillan and you are to be congratulated on your achievements at PALMPEX '82 - but why, as a judge did you settle for anything less than a "large Gold" for yourself??

WIPA and ESSEN sheets are also listed in the German BOREK catalogue. I'd call them "semi-official", but invite our members' comments if they think otherwise.

Season's Greetings!

H.H.

BOOK REVIEW

HRADCANY - Identification of Stamps of Type I, Representing Joined Types when se tenant with Type II.

A new and valuable addition to the literature dealing with Czechoslovakia's first issue has been brought to us by the undisputed giant among experts and mentors, Ing. Jan Karásek. As a member of the Commission of Experts of the Society of Czechoslovak Philatelists (SCSF), member of the International Association of Philatelic Experts and expert court witness (and Honorary Member of our Society), Ing. Karásek has again fired a telling salvo in his continuing battle against forgers. The book affords an unequivocal means of identifying forged se tenant types (SPOJENÉ TYPY) by describing, in great detail, the rare member of the se tenant pair, i.e. the Type I stamp (with open spiral, see fig.)

The book itself has been published in Brno by the local clubs, under the editorship of Ing. Bretislav Janik, member of the Editorial Board of FILATELIE, editor of BRNĚNSKÝ KOMPAS and member of our Society. Graphic design of the book and photography by Jan Klim and Ferdinand Petržela respectively, are to be commended. The book is soft-covered and contains 47 pages, of which 30 are devoted exclusively to illustrations. Introductory remarks by Alois Dušek, Member of the Executive Committee of the Society of Czechoslovak Philatelists and Chairman of Commission on the Czechoslovak Stamp draws attention to Karásek's characteristic meticulousness in describing the philatelic features of the Type I stamp.

The book identifies not only the se tenant pairs as such, but also calls attention to perforation varieties, their existence in the overprinted issues including the Air Mails, Postage Dues, and SO's. The tables in the book show relative rarity of the se tenant pairs for each perforation variety.

We consider this book essential to both the beginner and advanced collector of the Hradcany issues. It is priced at only 14 Kčs in Czechoslovakia. Arrangements are currently being sought to include this book in the Society's "BOOKS FOR SALE" list. Watch for it in future issues of the SPECIALIST.

Henry Hahn
